SERVICE FEES

1

STEP 1: RESUME ORDER

To use our job search service effectively, job seekers must purchase an eligible professional resume package, including a custom CV and LinkedIn interview training, for a minimum of $650. This step is required to get started to increase your employability and salary potential so that we are not sending out a sub-par resumes which could miss opportunities. This step is necessary to increase their chances of employment and salary potential. If a job seeker has already purchased an eligible resume packag worth $650 or more within the last year, they do not need to purchase it again.

2

STEP 2: JOBSEARCH

Once a job seeker has purchased a resume package, they will be assigned a job search consultant who will source a huge range of job opportunities that match their skills, experience, and preferences. They will source a wide range of suitable jobs and apply for them on your behalf, saving you all the hard work and opening more doors of opportunity for you and prepare them for every interview by researching each company and ensuring the job offer is a match with your needs and helping navigate the process.

STEP 3: JOB OFFER

If a job seeker is hired through our service, they agree to pay a commission of 10% of their first year's salary after tax (or 10% of earnings made within 12 months). The fee is paid in x12 easy monthly instalments over the course of the first year of employment. Simply send us your payslips each month, we calculate 10% and we invoice you the day after you have been paid from your new employer. This fee covers our interview preparation, application, and search services, as well as the consultant's time. Our service is risk-free, meaning if the job seeker is not hired through our service, they do not need to pay the 10% commission fees. If the job seeker loses their job or decides to quit, the payments will stop in line with their last payslip.

REESBY.

PROCESS

Step One: Purchase any eligible resume package from our selection online or over the phone (www.reesby.com.au/resumes)

Step Two: Receive our email requesting your documents and design selection and we commence working on your brand new resume package.

Step Three: Have a 1 on 1 meeting with a consultant to discuss your career goals, and requirements and then receive your first draft of your resume.

Step Four: Our job research team will compile a list of roles to apply for based on your needs, once approved we start applying and contact our industry partners to promote you to achieve the best possible job and salary.

Step Five: You should start getting interviews. Get free 1 on 1 interview training for each job interview you land to improve your job chances!

Step Six:
This is where you should start getting job offers. We will help you negotiate any job offer, ensuring a good salary and benefits and transition into the new role. Our Job placement commission fee of 10% of the new salary applies once an offer is accepted. Simply send us your monthly pay slip and we will invoice you for only 10% of the payslip amount for the first 12 months. No costs from thereafter. Payments stop if the position ends for any reason and recommences if you are rehired. Please note, although we have great placement success, job placement is market dependant and there are no guarantees the jobseeker will land or accept a position, the great news is, the 10% commission will only apply if a job is accepted so it is risk free.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q: What is the minimum order amount required for an eligible resume package?
A: Upon signing this agreement, you accept to purchase an eligible resume package of a minimum order amount of $650.00 or have already purchased a package within the past 12 months with us.

Q: When will i be required to pay for the jobsearch?
A: There is a fee for Reesby's JobSearch service only when you accept a job offer. The fee is typically 10% of the Total Base Salary or any wages earned, after tax, for the first 12 months of the employment or work contract. If the candidate is employed on a contract or temporary basis for less than 12 months, the placement fee will be calculated on a pro-rata basis.

Q: Is there any cost involved if I don't get a job?
A: There is no commission or cost for our jobsearch if you do not land a job. If no job or contract offer is accepted, then the 10% of the base salary commission fee will not apply. We wear all the risk in spending time which has a cost to our business in having our staff applying you to jobs and helping prepare you for interviews because we are so confident that we can help land you a great job that we wear all the incurred costs of the time spent applying you to jobs with no upfront cost to you unless you are offered a job whereby then the 10% commission fee. The resume cost is not refundable as the services and packages will have been rendered to you and the work has been performed.

Q: What is the commission placement fee or income share agreement?
A: A 10% Income Share Agreement of the first 12 months of earning or base salary for the first year will apply for any job offer through any company introduced to you and accepted by you through this service. The 10% fee will only apply if a job offer is made (and accepted) to the jobseeker. The 10% fee is paid to incentivisie your jobsearch consultant to find you the best job possible.

Q: What if I get a job without Reesbys introduction?
A: If you get a job with a brand we have not introduced you to or applied you to from the date of engaging our service, there is no 10% fee or payment necessary, simply provided us the trail of application and dates so we can verify it is not a company we have introduced you to first and that your application supersedes the date of ours. A job offer provided via Reesby's job search service shall mean any job offered by any company to which the candidate's application has been submitted by Reesby, or for any role that has subsequently been offered by the company itself or its subsidiaries/clients/employees. In addition, any job offer that arises out of an introduction made by Reesby, whether via email, phone or at a Reesby event, shall also be deemed a job offer provided by Reesby's job search service. Failure to provide adequate evidence if the company is one which we have applied you to will result in a feel

Q: How much does it cost, how is the payable fee to Reesby calculated?
A: 10% of anything you earn in 12 months for any paid engagement we help you secure. The payable fee to Reesby will be calculated in the amount of 10% of the candidate's payslip or earnings for the first 12 months (net pay), equivalent annual remuneration or any earnings for any job offered within 12 months of engaging our service, (plus GST). The Fee applies to any job/s you accept via our service for up to 12 months from the date of introduction.

Q: How long does it take to find a job through Reesby's JobSearch service?
A: The time it takes to find a job through Reesby's JobSearch service can vary based on several factors, including the candidate's qualifications and preferences, the current job market conditions, and the availability of job opportunities. Our recruitment specialists work diligently to find suitable job opportunities for each candidate as quickly as possible. Our team has the incentive to find you a job fast as they have a commission driving them to help you! We continue searching for 6 months.

Q: How does Reesby's JobSearch service work?
A: Candidates looking for job opportunities can submit their resumes and job preferences to Reesby. Our team of recruitment specialists will then match the candidate with relevant job opportunities based on their qualifications and preferences.

Q: What are the Job Search or Placement Services?
A: The Job Seeking Services are services provided by Reesby to assist Jobseekers to access employment opportunities. It is a tailored 1 to 1 service to help you land an ideal job. The services include introductions to potential employers, application assistance, and job placement services

Q: What kind of job opportunities does Reesby's JobSearch service offer?
A: Reesby's JobSearch service offers a wide range of job opportunities in various industries, including IT, finance, marketing, engineering, and more. The job opportunities may be full-time, part-time, or contract roles and will be based on your specific requests and desires. They may be publicly advertised roles or positions we are aware of through our extensive network.

Q: What happens if I accept a job offer through Reesby's JobSearch service, but then quit or leave?
A: If a candidate leaves their initial job offer, the agreed-upon fees shall apply for the duration that you are in the role. If you leave you must provide evidence and in line with your last payslip your payments will stop. If the new job is with a company we introduced you to, the fees will apply again for a new term of 12 months. If you accept multiple jobs we have helped you land, it will attract fees per job you accept.

Q: What is an Introduction?
A: An Introduction is the introduction of a Candidate to an employer or vice versa, or application made by Reesby, where the Fee is payable only upon the Candidate's acceptance of the employer's offer of engagement. This includes any third party you are referred to from the company introduced to you by the first introduction by Reesby. Introduction means the role is introduced to you by Reesby in writing or verbally, applied for on your behalf, in person, or over the phone.

Q: What if I get more than 1 job?
A: If the candidate is offered another position with the same company or its subsidiaries or client, or any other brand introduced by Reesby after the initial placement ends, it shall be treated as a separate placement, and the standard fee structure shall apply.

3. FEES AND PAYMENT
A 10% Income Share Agreement (commission for placement fee) of the base salary for the first year will apply for any job offer through any company introduced to you and accepted by you through this service. The 10% fee will only apply if a job offer is made (and accepted) to the jobseeker. Reesby will provide a reasonable effort to getting you placed by Reesby make no guarantees a job offer will arise from this service. There is no risk, If no job offer is accepted, then the 10% of the base salary commission fee will not apply. The payable fee to Reesby will be calculated in the amount of 10% of the candidate's net equivalent annual remuneration package for any job or paid engagement offered within 12 months of engaging our service, (plus GST) which will be taken to include a base salary for the first year only. You must provide your payslips and contracts to us for review and verification.

3.1 The Fee applies to any job/s you accept via our service for up to 12 months from the date of introduction. This means, If you accept a job/s or project or paid engagement, with any brand introduced to you, or that we introduce you to, or for any job applied to, or any company to which your profile or contacts were sent to, this includes their third party clients, as a result of our jobsearch service the 10% First year Fee applies.

3.2 The fee for our service:
10% of the Total Base Salary / Earnings for the first 12 months, and where a job is a contract, casual, temp or part-time role The 10% fee will amount to 10% of total wage earnings within 12 months of the employment or contract. For the first 12 months, a commission fee of 10% of the total Base Salary shall be payable. The 10% fee shall be paid in monthly instalments based on the Payslip amount due within 10 days of invoice. The commission fees shall be payable in 12 monthly instalments until the total amount is paid off as per the agreed payment plan. In the case of part-time, casual, or contract roles, the 10% amount shall be on a pro-rata basis and based on the earnings as per the candidate's payslip for any wages within 12 months of employment.

If the candidate is offered another position with the same company, its subsidiary or client, or any other brand introduced by Reesby, after the initial placement ends, it shall be treated as a separate placement, and the standard fee structure shall apply.
If the candidate accepts multiple roles simultaneously, a separate 10% commission service fee shall be payable for each of the accepted roles for the first year.

3.3 Late fees or penalties for non-payment
If payment is not made per the terms, then 5% daily late fee interest is payable on late payments in accordance with existing Victorian legislation, namely, the Penalty Interest Rates Act 1983. Such penalty interest would accrue 10 business days after the debt arises. You agree to allow Reesby to store and charge any credit or debit card or payment method on file should we not be able to recover payments.
3.8 If payment is not received from you, as services will have already been rendered, you agree and understand that Reesby will have legal rights to pursue the outstanding payment using any card on file or third-party debt collection agencies. You must submit a monthly payslip for the first 12 months. Any attempts to avoid notifying us of job offers will result in action taken against you to recuperate our service fees owed to our teams and your jobsearch consultants who worked to place you or help advise you along the journey. You must notify Reesby of any and all job offers during this period or Reesby will calculate what it determines to be reasonable expectation of a salary in this area and issue an invoice accordingly. Attempts to avoid fees will be deemed deceptive and causes a financial loss directly from your actions and will be pursued as a breach of contract and we will pursue the rightful owed fees to be paid through debt collectors or other legislative action.

3.4 Eligible Resume Package Order Required

If you have bought a package more than 12 months ago you would need to make a new order to have a more up to date resume and interview skills re-training. Reesby's Job Search and Placement Service will commence provided the retainer/ resume order has been paid within the terms of the invoice. The Client will provide Reesby with accurate information about the requirements of the position for which the Jobseeker is being sought.

3.5 Notification of any offers/ interviews
You are required to notify us of any job interviews or job offers you receive during your engagement period with our Reesby jobsearch service, even if it is outside of any company we have introduced to you to ensure it has not been applied to or referred by us. If you land a job via another method of your own without Reesby's assistance, you must notify Reesby and provide us with the employment agreement or application details for verification. We will then cross check if we have applied to that brand, or its clients, or any roles with that company during your service engagement, if you are offered any job with any brand we apply you to or introduce you to within 12 months of signing up to our service you will be required to pay the commission fee for this service. Avoiding notifying us, would attract a penalty rate for late payment fees. If we stop the search at any point, you will still be bound to pay a commission should you end up within a job with any company or role we have applied you to or introduced for up to 12 months from stopping the search.

We cannot guarantee you will land a job as we have no control on companies hiring decisions. If no placement is secured through the services offered by Reesby the amount of $650.00 minimum cost for the resume package will not be refunded as services will have been rendered to prepare your profile professional to increase your employability. Any job or company on our list or applied for via our application methods would
